

Privacy Policy

Introduction

Complete Class Organizer is dedicated to protecting your privacy and being transparent about our practices. Our Privacy Policy explains how we and our affiliates collect, use, and share information when you use our mobile applications.

Third Party Services

Complete Class Organizer uses third party service providers who operate their own Privacy Policies (listed below). We trust and consider these services important to maintaining a stable, useful application for our users.

The Third Party Services we use:

- Crashlytics — for the purpose of providing crash logs to help us identify bugs in our software to increase the application's stability. The Crashlytics Privacy Policy can be found at: <http://try.crashlytics.com/terms/>
- Apple iCloud — (if enabled by user) for the storage and syncing of your Complete Class Organizer data (if enabled). iCloud Privacy is covered under the

Apple Privacy Policy: <https://www.apple.com/privacy/>

- Apple Analytics — (if enabled by user) for the collection of anonymous analytical data to help us better understand how our customers and users use our Services. App Analytics is covered under the Apple Privacy Policy: <https://www.apple.com/privacy/>

Third Party SDK's (Software Development Kit) and API's

- Fabric SDK — provides us with the ability to collect crash logs through the Crashlytics service. The Fabric Privacy Policy can be found at: <https://fabric.io/terms>
- Dropbox API — provides the ability for you to connect your Dropbox account for the purpose of exporting and importing your documents. The Dropbox Privacy Policy can be found at: <https://www.dropbox.com/privacy>
- Google Drive API — provides the ability for you to connect to your Google Drive account for the purpose of exporting and importing your documents. The Google Drive Privacy Policy can be found at: <https://www.google.com/drive/terms-of-service/>

Information we collect and how we use it

All application data (any data you create and add to Complete Class Organizer) is only stored locally on your devices and, if enabled, on iCloud. This data is never shared with any other services unless you explicitly choose to do so through the sharing options available in Complete Class Organizer.

Information we share and who we share it with

We do not share information with any third party providers except for those mentioned below and detailed above:

- Usage information — Apple Analytics and Crashlytics.

Data Storage

All application data (any data you create and add to Complete Class Organizer) is only stored locally on your devices and, if enabled, on iCloud. This data is never shared with any other services unless you explicitly choose to do so through the sharing options available in Complete Class Organizer.

We have no way to access application data and therefore cannot read, recover or share data for or on behalf of any person or organization.

Data Protection

We take reasonable measures to protect any personal information we may hold about you in an effort to prevent loss, misuse, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. However, despite our efforts, no security measures are perfect or impenetrable and no method of data transmission can be guaranteed against any interception or other type of misuse.

For information on how your iOS device encrypts and secures data please see <https://support.apple.com/en-gb/HT202064>. For information on how data is protected on iCloud, please see <https://support.apple.com/en-gb/HT202303>.
